

R . J . M o n t g o m e r y
New Hope Center
& New Beginnings

After serving a six year sentence in the state penitentiary, I was paroled to The Salvation Army's New Hope Center. For the first time in a long time I had the freedom to do something in my life I had never done before: Get my life together.

Within two months living at the New Hope Center, I got a job I really enjoy. During my time in prison I studied horticulture and now have a job at a local nursery.

I couldn't have done this without The Salvation Army. The New Hope Center gave me a chance to find my new life.

Timothy James Vallejos

Timothy J. Vallejos
August, 2010

DOING
THE MOST GOODSM

www.TSACS.org